Rules Committee –

Responsibilities include:

- Conduct periodic review of all governing documents and make recommendations for changes
- Oversee suggestions for changes to deed restrictions
- Present to the association recommended changes to documents
- Work with the Admin Committee to develop ballots for proposed changes to Bylaws & Deed Restrictions

This year we revised the rules for using ATVs in the park, to include registering the vehicles, setting age requirements, and limiting where they can be used in order to prevent unsafe situations.

Off-road vehicles - An ORV policy has been established for the park. Registration is required. The annual fee is $5.

Rules pertaining to changes in Deed Restrictions were also reviewed as well as those pertaining to infractions of bylaws and restrictions.

We have been actively working with our attorney to update our Rules and Restrictions concerning Short Term Rentals, which was brought to us by members of the neighborhood.

We still need more volunteer commitment from our community. This particular committee is one of the few that need very little participation. We need neighbors to volunteer to help on the Rules Committee. Please be a committee volunteer.

Statement of the Association was given by the Jennifer Rodriguez, President, summarizing accomplishments for the year, and looking forward to changes coming for 2023.
